Title of Decision	Covid – Support to the Market (ASC)
Brief summary of the issue to be decided	The Covid-19 pandemic continues to have a major impact on adults supported by the NHS and on those in receipt of social care in Essex and on . It is expected there will continue to be significant additional work and costs as the pandemic continues over 2021/22. There is considerable learning on what support has been required in the first and second waves of significant infection. Adults Social Care is seeking the extension and adaptation of support schemes and resources for directly managed services and the wider care market.
