

Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner for Essex

£50k to £60k (depending on experience)

Fixed Term Appointment concurrent with the term of office of the Commissioner up to 3 years

Chelmsford based

This high profile and challenging new role will share all aspects of the work of the PCC. In particular, the Deputy will take a lead in scrutinising all financial performance of Essex Police as well as monitoring the effectiveness and value of crime reduction funding. You will have experience of financial management and ideally management accountancy with some experience of working in the public eye.

As well as sharing the PCC's vision for imaginative, innovative and successful use of crime reduction funds, you'll be an expert in your profession with proven experience of managing complex working environments and delivering successful performance outcomes. You will also have strong public speaking and political experience and be educated to degree level (or equivalent).

This key role will also require you to demonstrate a strategic outlook and display sophisticated interpersonal and influencing skills. If you are passionate, self-motivated and have high levels of drive and commitment to the policy and vision of the Police & Crime Commissioner for Essex visit www.essex.pcc.police.uk for a job description. For further information, please contact Edward Newland, special adviser to the PCC on 01245 291 600 or by email edward.newland@essex.pnn.police.uk

Applications will be subject to a short-list process, interviews will be held on 26th March 2013.

You will be required to pass a vetting check prior to being appointed and must meet all the statutory requirements of the Deputy PCC within the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011, specifically S.18/6, Schedule 1 S.8.

Closing date: Friday 8th March 2013.
