Eastern Highways Alliance Framework 3 (EHAF3) - procurement. Approval of the EHA Inter Authority Agreement	TBC	Kevin Bentley	Dawn Grover	At this stage it is not expected that the decision will require privacy or a confidential session. However, Should Members wish to question the performance of the existing framework in extensive detail, private session may be required due to commercial confidentiality. The need to privacy is however considered to be unlikely	Internal officers are being consulted via the current stakeholder meetings groups. This may alter going forward and include other specific boards. Wider stakeholder engagement with the other 10 local authorities on the framework is also underway at the Highways and Transformation Board	Portfolio Holder	No	Cabinet member action

Notes
