

Forward Plan decision title	Particulars of decision and why it is impracticable to wait 28 days
Temporary highway changes in Brentwood town centre <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Closure of high St other than to buses taxis and some exempt vehicles These changes are already being introduced on an emergency short term basis. The key decision is whether or not they should be the subject of a temporary order lasting up to 18 months, dependent upon government advice.	These changes have been introduced to facilitate social distancing. They have been introduced as a temporary emergency measure to support the re-opening of workplaces and the town centre retail uses. If we wait 28 days we will be required to remove the measures and then reinstate them, if that is what is decided. Before making the temporary order we will consider any feedback received from the public or highway users.
