DISTRICT LOCAL AUTHORITY PORTRAITS

District: Chelmsford

Covering 343 square kilometres, Chelmsford is situated at the heart of Essex and was granted city status in 2012. The borough consists of two main urban areas - the county town of Chelmsford and the town of South Woodham Ferrers - along with villages and other rural areas. The main arterial road of Essex, the A12, crosses through the borough providing quick access to the rest of the county and London. The area attracts a large number of commuters due to the 30–35 minute journey to central London via the mainline train service.
