Questions will be dealt with in the order in which notice of them is received, except that the Chairman may group together similar questions.

Where, at the discretion of the Chairman, it is not an efficient use of time or is otherwise inappropriate for the question to be dealt with during the period allocated for questions, it will be dealt with by a written answer.

Save for the Member replying to the question, no other Member shall be permitted to speak to the questioner, unless the question is such that it has to be answered by more than one member of the board.
